The Value of CIC's Bond Compliance Services

Tax exempt bonds are often an essential financing tool for starting a new school or expanding an existing charter school organization. Community Investment Corporation (CIC) helps charter schools meet the complex technical reporting requirements that come with using tax- exempt bond financing.

With our services, you can stay compliant with regulators, keep your investors happy, and get back to focusing on what you care about most – providing high quality education for your students.

CIC's Bond Compliance Team Will:

- Save you time
- Save you money
- Protect your "disclosure credit rating"
- Increase opportunity for future financing
- Give you piece of mind
